Let's delve deep into these 3 sections in our upcoming blog segments on the IBPS PO Selection Process 2024.

IBPS PO Selection Process 2024 - Preliminary Examination

IBPS PO Selection Process 2024 - Ladder to Your Dream Job

Your first challenge in the IBPS PO Selection Process 2024 is the Preliminary Exam. It's an online test filled with objective-type questions. To move on to the next stage, you'll need to clear both the sectional and overall cut-offs. Remember, the exam is worth 100 marks, divided into English, Reasoning, and Quantitative Aptitude sections. But watch out! There's a negative marking of 1/4 of the assigned mark for each wrong answer. Below is a snippet from the

Now that you've equipped yourself with the details about the preliminary exam, let us introduce you to yet another stage of the IBPS PO Selection Process 2024, that is, the Mains examination.

IBPS PO Selection Process 2024 - Mains Examination

Next up after the Preliminary Examination is the Mains Examination, and only those who score well enough to meet the minimum IBPS PO cut-offs for their category will make it to this stage. Like the Prelims, it's an online exam with a penalty of 1/4 of the assigned mark for incorrect answers. But here's the twist: the Mains Exam includes objective and descriptive questions, spread across five sections with specific time limits for each. With a total of 225 marks on the line, you'll need to be well-prepared. Here's a snippet from the official notification for your understanding:
