RBI Grade B Exam 2024 - An Overview

The Reserve Bank of India (RBI) has released the notification for the Grade B Officer Exam 2024. This includes vacancies in the General, DERP, and DSIM departments. The notification pdf, available on the official website, provides details on category-wise vacancies, exam dates, and registration deadlines. Interested and eligible candidates should review all the details carefully before applying for the RBI Grade B Recruitment 2024.

The selection process for the RBI Grade B Officer positions involves three stages: Prelims, Mains, and Interviews. Candidates must score above the specified cut-off in each stage to advance to the next. This ensures that only the best candidates progress through the selection process. We will discuss the Exam pattern for both i.e. Prelims and Mains in the upcoming segment of this blog.

RBI Grade B Exam 2024 - Phase I

The Phase I exam of the RBI Grade B is a single paper worth 200 marks, consisting of four sections: General Awareness, English Language, Quantitative Aptitude, and Reasoning. It features 200 questions to be completed in 120 minutes. The exam paper is available in Hindi and English (except for the English Language section), and scores are normalized using the equi-percentile method. Candidates must meet the minimum marks requirement for each section and overall to qualify, with a penalty of 1/4th of the marks for each incorrect answer. Successful candidates move on to Phase II.

- 120 minutes duration; available in Hindi and English.
- Scores are normalized; minimum marks required for qualification.
- 1/4th mark penalty for wrong answers.
- Qualified candidates proceed to Phase II.

Sections	Number of questions	Marks
General Awareness	80	80
Reasoning	60	60
English Language	30	30
Quantitative Aptitude	30	30
Total	200	200

RBI Grade B Exam 2024 - Phase II

Phase II of the RBI Grade B exam is conducted for candidates shortlisted from Phase I, with exams held in multiple shifts. Candidates must appear for all shifts. The exam consists of three papers: Paper I and III, which include both objective and descriptive questions, and Paper II, which is entirely descriptive.

- Paper I and III last 120 minutes each (30 minutes for objective, 90 minutes for descriptive), while Paper II lasts 90 minutes.
- All papers, except the English Language, are available in English and Hindi. Descriptive answers must be typed using a keyboard.
- The total marks for Phase II are 300, with each paper worth 100 marks.
- Paper I and III's objective sections have 30 questions, some worth two marks and others one mark. The descriptive sections have six questions, with candidates required to answer four (two worth 15 marks, two worth 10 marks). If more than four questions are answered, only the first four are evaluated.
- Paper II consists of three descriptive questions.
