Question

Section 41 of Juvenile Justice Act 2002 provides which privileges to adopted children?

Difficulty : Moderate

Average Time : 28 Seconds

Options :

1. Providing children homes
2. Care and Protection
3. Offering for re-adoption
4. All of the above

Solution

The correct answer is Option 2 i.e. Care and Protection.

Section 41 in the Juvenile Justice Act, 2000 states that the primary responsibility of a family towards their adopted children is to provide care and protection to them. It also mentions that adoption can be turned to as a rehabilitation for those children who have been orphaned, abandoned or surrendered.
