The given question suggests finding the correct arrangement of parts forming a coherent sentence.

The theme of this sentence is the strategy of the European Union to boost its power.

The first part will be 'B' because it tells the reason why the topic of the EU arises.

The second part is 'D' because it mentions the other part of the sentence.

The third part is 'C' that tells about how one particular country can step forward.

The fourth part is 'B' as it mentions the way that Germany could use.

Hence, the correct order is BDCA.
