Concept/Grammar rules	Applications
-----------------------	--------------

The given question suggests finding the correct arrangement of parts forming a coherent sentence.

The theme of this sentence is a social issue.

The first part will be 'C' as it mentions the radical approach of society and marks the beginning of a discussion.

The second part is 'A' because it mentions a topic that comes under the radical right upfront.

The third part is 'D' that tells about the other two aspects of censoriousness.

The fourth part is 'B' as it mentions the last aspect of censoriousness and the wider one.

Hence, the correct order is CADB.
