Question

Choose the most appropriate option to change the (active/passive) voice form of the given sentence. You have seen that movie many times.

Difficulty : Moderate

Average Time : 31 Seconds

Options :

1. That movie have been seen by you many times.
2. That movie has been seen by you many times.
3. That movie had seen by you many times.
4. That movie is being seen by you many times.

Solution

The correct answer is option 2 i.e. That movie has been seen by you many times.

If preposition or adverb is mentioned with the verb, the expression should not be changed while making Passive voice.

The sentence is in the assertive form of the present perfect tense of passive voice. The structures for active/passive voices are:

Passive Voice: Object to Subject + has been/ have been + past participle form of verb + by + subject to object.

Active Voice: Subject + has/ have + past participle form of verb + object.

Going by the above rules, the correct option is 2.
